Magical Mischief is back, immersing visitors in the filmmaking trickery required to pull off the magical mishaps seen in the Harry Potter film series. Fans will experience O.W.L examinations under Professor Umbridge's watchful eye in the iconic Great Hall set, complete with the swinging pendulum and paper firing exam desks.

Visitors will encounter the Weasley twins' pranks throughout the Studio Tour and discover the secrets behind the making of the levitating cake and Harry's flying acceptance letters. Aspiring wizards can even try their hand at making an origami howler, just like the one delivered to Ron by Mrs Weasley in Harry Potter and the Chamber of Secrets.

Summer Feature

Dark Arts

12th September – 9th November

Back by popular demand is Dark Arts, the Studio Tour's eerie Hallowe'en feature. The magnificent Great Hall will have over 100 pumpkins magically floating above the Hogwarts house tables, dressed with a Hallowe'en feast of lollipops and red apples. Dementors and Death Eaters will appear throughout the Studio Tour and the legacy of the ghosts of Hogwarts lives on as their costumes will be on display.

Visitors can put their wand skills to the test and go into combat with Death Eaters as they storm the Studio Tour. Discover the filmmaking magic behind troll snot and unicorn blood before visiting a darker Diagon Alley. Brave guests are invited to follow the Dark Mark using hints in the activity passport.

Hogwarts in the Snow

15th November – 18th January 2026

The beloved Hogwarts in the Snow feature will return for the festive season. The spectacular Great Hall will be transformed into scenes from the Yule Ball as seen in Harry Potter and the Goblet of Fire. The Gryffindor common room, Forbidden Forest and Diagon Alley will be dressed for Christmas and the Hogwarts castle model will be coated in snow using the same technique used in the Harry Potter film series.
