

MOLLY WEASLEY'S SANDWICH SELECTION

Throughout the Harry Potter stories, Molly often believed that a plate of sandwiches could help with any situation. However, these aren't Ron's squashed corned beef sandwiches from the Hogwarts Express. Our creations capture the essence of her character – infused with the same warmth and love that she so effortlessly exudes.

SAVOURY BITES

The Burrow Cucumber Cup

Cucumbers were often grown in the garden by the Weasley family. This cup is filled with a whipped beetroot & vegan feta mousse, with a sprinkling of granola seeds.

Miniature Quaffle

This chickpea falafel Quaffle is much smaller than the standard issue 12-inch ball used in Quidditch, but it's packed full of Moroccan style spices.

Vegan Smoked 'Salmon'

Delicate vegan smoked 'salmon' layered on a vegan crostini, adorned with velvety cream cheese and samphire. Inspired by the tastes of the Scottish Highlands – Minerva McGonagall's homeland, which was the backdrop for Hogwarts castle.

SWEET TREATS

Golden Snitch

Unlike the first Snitch Harry caught, you won't find the Resurrection Stone inside. Instead, our white chocolate Snitch conceals a burst of luscious raspberry ganache.

Follow the Butterflies

This chocolate sphere has a vibrant passionfruit caramel centre and is adorned with a dark chocolate butterfly. We agree with Ron – butterflies are better than spiders.

Peppermint Toad

Inspired by the whimsical hopping treats found in Honeydukes, this rich chocolate mousse is infused with a hint of peppermint.

Dumbledore's Sherbet Lemon Macaron

Lemon macaron with candied lemon. Packed in the pockets of his robes or tucked away in the corners of his cluttered office, a stash of sherbet lemons was never far from the headmaster's reach.

Lupin's Chocolate Macaron

Chocolate is known for its ability to conjure feelings of calmness and comfort. This indulgent chocolate macaron, topped with a chocolate frog, evokes Lupin's preferred Dementor remedy.

Butterbeer Rock Cake

Mix Hagrid's rock cakes with the essence of Butterbeer, and voila – a twist on the classic British baked treat. Accompanied with Butterbeer-infused cream and jam.
